

“The MISSING SIN CARA MASK!”

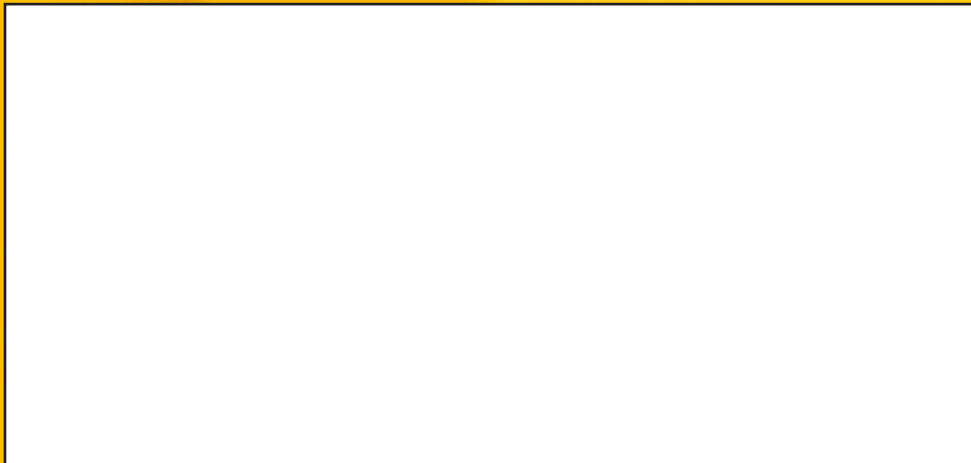

STORYBOARD TASK: In this task you need to draw the scene based on what is written in the story.

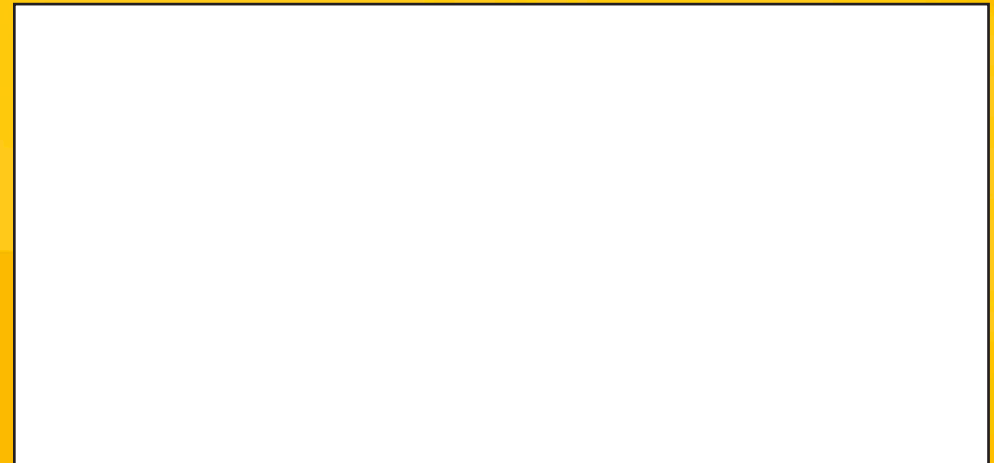

Raul Jimenez:
Missing Sin Cara Mask

“Yes” “Yes”, all the Wanderers were shouting and cheering as they walked to the dugout after their 3-2 win against Man City.

Then all of a sudden Raul turned to his team with a worried and sad look up on his face. They all stopped in their tracks, “What’s up our kid?” asked The Mind Reader Conor Coady. “My Sin Cara mask”, it’s gone explained Raul. “We must try and find it” said The Foreseer Ruben Neves

“A fan must have taken it”, said The Wall Willy Boly.
“How do we find out who cried Raul.”
“We’ve had 33,000 fans here today!” added The Foreseer Ruben Neves.

Then the best captain Wolves have ever had, The Mind Reader Conor Coady, gathered the team together for a much-needed team chat. They huddled together, all with a puzzled looks on their faces.

Then out of no-where "VAR" echoed around Molineux. "Let's check on the one and only VAR", shouted The Foreseer Ruben Neves. "That must show something" he added.

"Nice thinking" smiled The Super Strong Adama. "Come on lads let's go!" said The Mind Reader Coady.

After studying the footage several times, The Wall Willy Boly shouted, "STOP THE FOOTAGE! I see something", pointing to the screen. He'd spotted a yellow extra-long reach grabber stick, which was reaching into the dug out, right where the Sin Cara mask was throughout the game.

"We can't see who it is though" screamed Raul. There was a slight pause. "I know, let's go and check the CCTV in the Billy Wright stand", said The Mind Reader Coady. They quickly ran to the security office.

They checked through the CCTV and had a clear view of the dug out. They saw the long reach grabber stick heading to the right of the dug out. They zoomed in for a closer look. They saw an individual all in black holding the grabber stick.

They studied the footage a little more and then The Mind Reader Coady screeched out, "Look who it is!!!" they all looked at him. "It's the one and only Wolves legend Steve Bull. "Woooooow, Steve Bull has my mask!" said Raul in amazement.

"It's alright our kid", said The Mind Reader Coady, "I know where he lives". "Come on I'll take you". They all ran to The Mind Reader's car.

IT'S COMPETITION TIME!

The Wanderers are helping “Raul Jimenez to find his missing sin Cara mask” and we need you to draw the scenes to the story. We would like you to be as creative as you can adding lots of colour to your storyboard. We will then have a judging panel that will decide on the best story board scenes to put together in our final book, that will be available to download on our website.

There are 14 scenes including the front cover, which means 14 winners! All winning entries will be given a prize bag with lots of goodies, and your story will be published and downloadable online.

All entries will need to be scanned/photographed and sent via email to gregwarren@wolves.co.uk.

Attached with your entry needs to be this letter with the details attached.

GOOD LUCK!
