Good evening,

Welcome to the SEAH Stadium for tonight's determining round of the League Cup.

Tonight we host a very much improved Stoke side who have seen some outstanding signings over the summer. Coming off the back of their first win of the season against Hull on Sunday I'm sure they'll be coming into the game full of confidence.

After picking up a good win at Derby last weekend, the players are also confident heading into tonight's fixture. We saw a very different kind of display against Derby, full of character and heart to get the job done. Losing the captain towards the end wasn't ideal, but it's something we now have to deal with in the coming weeks.

Tonight gives us a great opportunity to see players who deserve a chance after some excellent performances off the bench.

Thank you to those who have travelled to come and support us tonight and we hope you enjoy the game.

Stoke City

Stoke City Ladies were formed in 2001 and began playing in the West Midlands League Division One North in what was at that time the sixth tier of women's football in England.

They finished in third position in that first season, some 10 points behind Champions Crewe Vagrants, however, they gained promotion to the Premier Division.

They spent the next seven seasons always finishing in a top half position but never quite managing to mount a title challenge.

That was before the 2008/09 campaign when they almost defeated everything that was put in front of them. Collecting 81 points throughout the campaign, they finished a massive 35 points clear of runners-up Solihull to capture the Premier League title for the first time and with it promotion to the Midland Combination League.

They handled the step up in class well and finished in a creditable mid-table position that first season, also winning the Staffordshire County Cup for the fourth time.

Maintaining the upward push and improving over the next couple of campaigns, they eventually finished the 2011/12 season as League and Cup runners-up to Wolves.

Everything was put right the following term as they completed an historic treble, scooping the league championship, League Cup and County Cup, and gaining promotion to the FA Women's Premier League Northern Division.

In March 2013 the club decided to apply to join the expanding FA Women's Super League, but they were one of the unsuccessful applicants.

That first season in what is now the third tier of women's football, was a good one for the Potters. They finished in mid-table, four points behind the runners-up, although they were a distant 20 points behind Champions Sheffield FC Ladies.

Since that first season in the National League they have finished no lower than seventh with four consecutive finishes in fourth from 2015/16.

In 2019/20 they were looking to capture silverware having made their way through to the League Cup Final, only for the season to be terminated early when the country was locked down.

Following two disappointing seasons on the league front, 2023 saw the announcement that the team would become semi-professional for the 2023/24 season onwards following significant investment from the owners of Stoke City FC, with Women's Super League winner and Republic of Ireland international, Marie Hourihan appointed the first full time coach of the team.

They achieved a fifth place finish last season and hope to build on that solid base this term.
